

My wife and I both work full-time. Sitting down to eat dinner without receiving 4-5 annoying telephone solicitations during that time has been most enjoyable. Please do not deprive us of that pleasure by easing NJ's "Do Not Call" laws. Send me something in the mail. If I want another credit card or additional life insurance I will call the vendor.